Meeting Tomorrow's Healthcare Fraud & Compliance Challenges Today

A Forum for Healthcare Professionals

May 25, 2016

Join Gray Reed and the Dallas Business Journal for a breakfast panel discussion of today's complex healthcare environment. Industry leaders will explore the compliance and suspect fraud issues providers face and how to respond to the regulatory issues affecting your business. Our panelists will provide insight as to how you should respond to regulatory changes and how to keep potential issues from arising. If you're in the business of providing healthcare, this is a seminar you want to attend.
