

End of Life Planning

CBS' Plugged In To DFW

March 19, 2016

Gray Reed attorney Greg Sampson recently spoke with Kara Gordon at CBS's Plugged In To DFW about end of life planning. Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, Sampson talked about when is the right time to make a will and how often you should revise it, the importance of advance (medical) care planning, and at what point someone should discuss these things with an attorney. To see the four-part series, please view the links below:

Part 1 – Making a Will

Part 2 – Advance Care Planning

Part 3 – Advance Care Planning

Part 4 – When to Talk to A Lawyer