

Tax Changes for Physicians and Dentists

Capital Thinking Radio

June 12, 2012

Jennifer Gurevitz, an tax associate at Gray Reed & McGraw, talks about tax changes affecting those with a private practice in the medical industry.

Listen to the Interview

Gurevitz serves clients across the broad range of taxation law. In particular, her practice focuses on taxation with a special emphasis on federal income and estate tax transactions and tax controversy work. Her practice involves all aspects of business tax planning including the formation, restructuring and maintenance of partnerships, limited liability companies and corporations.

Capital Thinking is a weekly Internet radio show on the VoiceAmerica Business network. The show brings you top guests from the world of politics, policy, the legal world, and the business community.

About Gray Reed & McGraw

Founded in 1985, Gray Reed & McGraw is a full-service, Texas based law firm with more than 100 lawyers practicing in Houston, Dallas and Tyler. Gray Reed & McGraw offers a wide range of legal services including business litigation, corporate transactions, oil & gas, tax planning and litigation, real estate, healthcare, trusts and estates, employment law, family law, and bankruptcy. For more information, visit www.grayreed.com.