

---

Don Looper Drills into the Thick of Major Global Energy Deals

Houston Business Journal

July 10, 2009

Don Looper, a Member at Gray Reed & McGraw, was quoted and profiled in the Houston Business Journal article "Don Looper drills into the thick of major global energy deals". Looper's practice focuses on the tax aspects related to partnership, corporate, and international tax issues. His skills for structuring and managing international business transactions have resulted in Looper being selected by clients to manage international projects negotiated in 32 foreign states/countries. Among his areas of expertise include international regulatory sanctions against foreign jurisdictions and designated nationals.

To read the full story, click here.

To view the original Gray Reed & McGraw press release, click here.