
Will the Current State of the Economy Increase Government Audits?

KTRH Radio

April 13, 2011

Will the current state of the economy increase the number of government audits? Norm Lofgren discusses this on KTRH Radio.

Click here to listen to the discussion.

Norm's practice focuses on taxation, estate planning and family wealth protection and transfer. His experience as a former trial attorney for the IRS coupled with his extensive experience in income, estate, gift, generation-skipping tax matters and tax planning for closely held businesses enables Norm to create solutions that minimize tax exposure and preserve wealth.