Houston's Bullish Energy Sector: What Will Happen in 2013

KUHF-FM Radio and KTRH-AM Radio

February 8, 2013

Houston continues to receive incredibly encouraging signs that the Oil & Gas/Energy sector is expanding and growing. ExxonMobil is building a huge complex in North Houston, Phillips 66 is building International HQ in West Houston, and seven other major construction projects are on-going in West Houston's Energy Corridor. Now we hear that Phillips 66 just reported a $1.3 billion fourth quarter profit. Gray Reed & McGraw Oil & Gas attorney J. Wayne Ballew shares his insight into the market and what we can expect for 2013.
