
Gray Reed Reaffirms a $900,000 Jury Verdict

Texas Lawbook

November 5, 2013

The Fourteenth Court of Appeals in Houston upheld a Harris County jury decision last week that a local school district violated one of its ex-peace officer's rights under the Texas Whistleblower Act and the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution.

The opinion also affirmed more than $900,000 in attorneys' fees and damages for Gray Reed & McGraw attorneys Jim Reed and Mitch Ackal and their client, Troy Perry. For more information, click here.