

Council Gives Wage Theft Ordinance Unanimous Passage

Houston Chronicle

November 21, 2013

Houston City Council voted unanimously Wednesday to adopt an ordinance aimed at deterring companies from stealing workers' wages and ensuring the city does not hire firms that do, though supporters acknowledged the measure's limited reach.

Gray Reed & McGraw attorney Ruth Ann Daniels weighed in on the matter. Click here for her thoughts.