

Sofia Adrogué Appointed to City of Houston's Hispanic Advisory Board

May 6, 2016

Gray Reed is pleased to announce that Sofia Adrogué has been appointed to serve on Mayor Sylvester Turner's Hispanic Advisory Board in Houston.

Adrogué previously served under Mayor Annise Parker. This board serves as the Latino community's liaison to the Mayor making recommendations on policies which advance the social, economic and political issues of all Latinos in the City of Houston. She will serve as the Chair of the Appointments Subcommittee, which identifies and recruits a diverse pool of talented Hispanics from our community to recommend to the Mayor to serve on boards and commissions of the City of Houston.

Adrogué handles complex commercial litigation and multi-party proceedings in state and federal courts, as well as in ADR proceedings throughout the United States and abroad. She represents clients in a wide variety of industries, ranging from entrepreneurs to multinational corporations. Adrogué has been profiled by many publications, including Texas Lawyer (one of Texas' Top "40 Under 40"), Texas Monthly and Law & Politics Magazine ("Texas Super Lawyer"), and Houston Woman Magazine. She also serves as the Editor of Texas Business Litigation (ALM 2015, 2016) (First & Second Edition). A native of Argentina, she is a graduate of the Harvard Business School Owner/President Management Program, an alumna of the Harvard Business School, and received her J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center, magna cum laude, Order of the Coif and Barons, and her B.A. from Rice University, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, both on full academic scholarships.
