

Gray Reed & McGraw Welcomes Jason Brown and Kristen Kelly

May 16, 2016

Gray Reed is pleased to welcome new associates Jason Brown and Kristen Kelly to the firm. Brown joins the firm's Corporate Restructuring and Bankruptcy team in Dallas, while Kelly joins the commercial litigation team in Houston.

Brown focuses his practice on bankruptcy and financial restructuring law, and has experience representing creditors in Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 bankruptcies and counseling lenders in insolvency and restructuring scenarios. He received his law degree from Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law, and attended Louisiana State University – Shreveport for his undergraduate education.

Kelly focuses her commercial litigation practice on energy, construction, insurance and financial institution disputes. She has experience in state, federal and appellate courts. Kelly received her law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and attended Vanderbilt University for her undergraduate education.

About Gray Reed & McGraw

For more than 30 years, Gray Reed has been a full-service, Texas based law firm with more than 120 lawyers practicing in Dallas and Houston. Gray Reed offers a wide range of legal services including business litigation, corporate transactions, oil & gas, tax planning and litigation, real estate, healthcare, trusts and estates, employment law, family law, intellectual property, and bankruptcy. For more information, visit www.grayreed.com.