

Gray Reed Named Outstanding Mid-Size Firm by Houston Bar Foundation

February 21, 2017

Gray Reed received the Outstanding Mid-Size Firm Contribution award at the Houston Bar Foundation's Annual Luncheon held Feb. 21, 2017 in Houston, Texas.

Recipients were chosen for outstanding contributions to the Houston Volunteer Lawyers, which provides pro bono legal services to low-income residents; for volunteer service to the Dispute Resolution Center, providing free alternatives to formal litigation; and for legal writing in the HBA's professional journal, The Houston Lawyer.

In 2016, Gray Reed handled more than 20 pro bono cases, sponsored quarterly clinics at the Houston Area Women's Center non-resident location and helped to spearhead the Houston Volunteer Lawyers' collaborative family program.

On hand to accept the award was Gray Reed Energy Associate Brooke Sizer, chair of Gray Reed's Pro Bono Committee, and Family Law Associate Ellie Natenberg.

About Houston Bar Foundation

The Houston Bar Foundation was established in 1982 as a charitable arm of the Houston Bar Association. Since that time, the Foundation has supported programs that help provide legal representation to the indigent, promote community understanding of the legal system and foster the administration of justice. Through the generosity of its many contributors, the Foundation has been able to make a difference in the greater Houston community.
