
Gray Reed Partner Recognized in Chambers High Net Worth 2018 Guide

July 20, 2018

Gray Reed is proud to announce that Gray Reed Partner Glen Eichelberger is recognized in the Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) 2018 guide. His ranking advanced from a Band 3 Private Wealth Attorney in Texas in 2017 to a Band 2.

Now in its third edition, the HNW guide covers private wealth management work and related specialisms in key jurisdictions around the world, featuring in-depth editorial about the leading lawyers and law firms for wealthy individuals and families. Law firms and individual lawyers are ranked in bands from 1–6, with 1 being the best. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment and other qualities most valued by the client.

Board Certified in Estate Planning & Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and a licensed CPA, Eichelberger focuses on all aspects of trust, estate and philanthropic planning and administration for individuals and families. He advises clients on the most effective ways to minimize estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer taxes, as well as the implementation and administration of complex estate planning structures, including charitable planning and counseling family foundations and other non-profit organizations on a variety of ongoing entity governance matters. For a portion of his career, Eichelberger served as Director for Merrill Lynch's Family Office Services, a division of Merrill Lynch's Private Banking and Investment Group, with national responsibility for its family office practice.
