
Legal Marketing Association Southwest Region Honors Michael Blachly

October 3, 2018

Michael Blachly was recognized by the Legal Marketing Association Southwest Region (LMASW) as the first recipient of the LMA Southwest Region President's Award. Blachly currently serves as the Past-President for the LMASW and helped create a regional system.

"Michael is most deserving of the inaugural LMA Southwest President's Award," said LMASW President Jessica Jaramillo. "His dedication and hard work have helped lay the foundation for our Region and the pillars for our future success. We are a strong organization because of Michael's leadership."

Founded in 1985, LMA is the universal voice of the legal marketing profession and has more than 4,000 members in 33 countries.
