
Gray Reed Partner Recognized in Chambers High Net Worth 2019 Guide

July 19, 2019

Gray Reed is thrilled to announce that Partner Glen Eichelberger is recognized in the Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) 2019 guide as a leading private wealth law attorney. He has been recognized by Chambers since 2017.

The HNW guide covers private wealth management work and related specialisms in key jurisdictions around the world, featuring in-depth editorial about the leading lawyers and law firms for wealthy individuals and families. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment and other qualities most valued by the client.

Eichelberger's profile in the 219 HNW guide reads as follows:

"Glen Eichelberger of Gray Reed & McGraw LLP wins praise from interviewees for his practice in estate, trust and charitable planning for business owners and wealthy families. "I love working with Glen," enthuses one peer, commending Eichelberger as "very good technically." Sources praise the collaborative approach he takes with other lawyers, noting that "if these lawyers can work with each other that's a real gift."

Board Certified in Estate Planning & Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and a licensed CPA, Eichelberger serves as Chair of the firm's Trusts and Estates Department. He focuses on all aspects of trust, estate and philanthropic planning and administration for individuals and families. He advises clients on the most effective ways to minimize estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer taxes, as well as the implementation and administration of complex estate planning structures, including charitable planning and counseling family foundations and other non-profit organizations on a variety of ongoing entity governance matters. For a portion of his career, Eichelberger served as Director for Merrill Lynch's Family Office Services, a division of Merrill Lynch's Private Banking and Investment Group, with national responsibility for its family office practice.
