
Hubenak Appointed To TSCPA Relations With The IRS Committee

May 20, 2011

Gray Reed & McGraw congratulates Deidra Wilson Hubenak on her invitation to join the Texas Society of CPA Committee: Relations with the IRS. While on the committee, Deidra will build and maintain communication with IRS, exchange ideas and information with IRS officials and among TSCPA members.

The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA) is a nonprofit, voluntary, professional organization representing Texas CPAs. TSCPA has 20 local chapters statewide and has 29,000 members. The Society is committed to serving the public interest with programs that advance the highest standards of ethics and practice within the CPA profession. The TSCPA exists to support its members in their professional endeavors and to promote the value and high standards of Texas CPAs.

Deidra is a licensed attorney and a Certified Public Accountant with more than 20 years of experience providing multinational corporations, closely held businesses and individuals with tax and estate planning. Half of that experience was obtained while working in the international tax section of PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP and the federal tax section of Ernst & Young, LLP.
