

Gray Reed Joins Lexwork International

July 16, 2010

Gray Reed & McGraw was welcomed to Lexwork International, a global alliance of mid-sized law firms. The addition of Gray Reed brings Lexwork's total membership to 41 firms with representation in 36 countries around the world.

Lexwork International is a global alliance of independent law firms who have joined together to provide their clients with international capabilities and resources. In Lexwork, member firms can make referrals with confidence that its high quality member firms will handle legal matters with promptness, a high degree of skill and care, and at a reasonable cost.

Peter Velde, chair of Lexwork Americas and a partner at Kightlinger & Gray, LLP of Indianapolis, welcomed Gray Reed echoing the organization's mission: "our growth is due to our mission, which has proven to be very successful over the years. Because we are in different locations, we don't compete with each other. Our reach is now global with true "local" expertise. When our clients require legal assistance in other courts, jurisdictions, and practice areas, we have the answer—our alliance."

Every firm in the Lexwork International network maintains rigorous practice standards. In addition, each member firm is required to maintain appropriate professional indemnity insurance.
