
Lofgren Elected Secretary/Treasurer of the Probate, Trust & Estates Section of the Dallas Bar Association

June 24, 2009

Norm Lofgren, a Member at Gray Reed & McGraw, was elected Secretary / Treasurer of the Probate, Trust & Estates Section of the Dallas Bar Association. Last year he served as Program Chair responsible for the monthly continuing legal education offerings to the Section.

Norm's practice focuses on taxation, estate planning and family wealth protection and transfer. His experience as a former trial attorney for the IRS coupled with his extensive experience in income, estate, gift, generation-skipping tax matters and tax planning for closely held businesses enables Norm to create solutions that minimize tax exposure and preserve wealth.
