

New Blog Focuses on Texas Metal Recycling Law

November 17, 2008

DALLAS – Gray Reed & McGraw is pleased to announce the addition of Texas Metal Recycling Law (www.texasmetallaw.com) to its blogging network. Matthew Sanderson, an attorney with Gray Reed & McGraw, started the blog with a focus on cutting-edge news and legal topics related to metal recycling.

"Now more than ever, there are tremendous regulations and market pressures affecting metal recycling," Mr. Sanderson said. "The current political climate is likely to cause greater regulations and market pressure. I, therefore, created TexasMetalLaw.com to help the public and those in the industry wade through these myriad legal issues and to give them the legal tools they need to make the best decisions possible in their business."

Some recent blog headlines include:

- With Low Prices, Beware of Scams
