
Sofia Adrogué Hosts a Television Talk Show

April 23, 2009

Sofia Adrogué P.C., a Member at Gray Reed & McGraw, is now a co-host on Latina Voices on HoustonPBS Ch. 8. The innovative, first of its kind, Cable TV and internet streamed Talk Show began airing on February 22, 2009. Other co-hosts include Houston community leader and award winning news woman Minerva Pérez, and Emmy-award winning PBS Anchor/Producer Patricia Grás.

The show is designed to empower viewers as a whole, and Latina(o)s in particular. With appeal to a mainstream audience, it will target the multi-generational, educated Bilingual Latina(o) professionals in the U.S and will serve as an English language source of information on issues and topics ranging from current affairs, business, politics and lifestyle trends with a touch of flair.

With the vast and growing Latina(o) population, 44 million according to the U.S. Census latest figures with projected gains expected, Latina Voices stands to make an impact in the way English-speaking Latina(o)s get their information about issues that affect them.

Latina Voices can also be seen on Comcast Cable Ch. 16 (Houston) and will be streamed on www.latinavoices.com.

Sofia handles complex commercial litigation and multi-party proceedings in state and federal courts as well as in ADR proceedings throughout the United States and abroad. She represents clients in all industries, ranging from entrepreneurs in rural Texas to multinational conglomerates with diversified worldwide business holdings. She also represents parties in peer review proceedings and/or before state regulatory or licensing agencies in the healthcare arena.
