

Gray Reed & McGraw Named to Houston Business Journal's 2013 Top Mergers & Acquisitions Law Firms List

September 11, 2013

Gray Reed & McGraw is proud to announce its inclusion in the Houston Business Journal list of the top 25 mergers & acquisitions law firms in the Houston area.

"While Gray Reed attorneys are skilled in navigating every aspect of business, we are particularly proud of this recognition for our Mergers and Acquisitions practice group," said President and Managing Director J. Cary Gray.

Gray Reed & McGraw attorneys have represented start-ups, early-stage companies, emerging growth companies and mature companies in structuring, negotiating and closing all forms of financings, ranging from seed and first round venture financings, to later stage investments. Our attorneys have extensive experience advising public and private companies with respect to a full range of M&A transactions, including acquisitions and divestitures, mergers, recapitalizations, going private transactions, and strategic alliances.

This is the first year for Gray Reed to appear on the list.
