

Gray Reed & McGraw Attorney Speaks to TEXO, Construction Financial Management Association

October 15, 2013

Texas State Representative and Gray Reed attorney Jeff Leach will share his insight on the recently completed legislative session. He will speak alongside the Texas Building Branch AGC lobby team of Mike Chatron and Corbin Van Arsdale to address a joint meeting of TEXO (the Construction Association representing commercial contractors in North and East Texas) and Construction Financial Management Association (who represents construction financial professionals). The presentation is Thursday, October 17, from 11:30 am – 1:00 pm at the Las Colinas Country Club, 4400 North O'Connor Road, Irving, Texas.

The speakers will focus on new laws affecting the construction industry, water and transportation issues as well as stories of the challenges and courage it takes to serve, shepherd and pass a bill in the Texas Legislature.
