

Gray Reed Attorney Honored by Gulf Coast Family Law Specialists

July 16, 2014

(Houston) – Gray Reed attorney William Morris was recently awarded the David Gibson Award for Professionalism by the Gulf Coast Family Law Specialists.

The annual award honors family law attorneys who exemplify excellence in family law. It is given in honor of the late Houstonian David Gibson, an admired, triple-board-certified, family law attorney.

Morris is a former chair of the organization and has been a family law attorney for 40 years. He has also served as the Chair of the Houston Bar Association's Family Law Section in 1996–1997 and was the Chair of the Collaborative Law Section of the Houston Bar Association in 2006–2007. From 1982–1993, he was an Associate Judge in the 247th District Court.
