Gray Reed & McGraw Hosts International Legal Conference

October 27, 2014

(Houston) – Texas-based law firm Gray Reed & McGraw hosted law firms from around the world at the biannual Lexwork International conference October 23-25 in Houston. Lexwork is a referral network of mid-sized law firms representing over 30 countries across the world.

The Lexwork representatives met to discuss Lexwork business and also to experience Texas hospitality and learn about Houston business. That hospitality was evident as they visited local hotspots like The Tasting Room and El Big Bad, capped off by a visit to Texas Ranch Life in Chappell Hill, Texas, where they participated in activities such as horseback riding, ranchwork demonstrations, skeet shooting and more.
