
Offshore Compliance Options including OVDP and the Streamlined Filing Compliance Procedures

19th Annual International Tax Symposium

November 3, 2016

On November 3, 2016, in Dallas and November 4, 2016, in Houston, Austin Carlson and IRS Office of Chief Counsel Attorney Dan Price spoke to attendees at the 19th Annual International Tax Symposium.

Their presentation discussed offshore compliance options including OVDP and the streamlined filing compliance procedures. The presentation had four objectives:

- Broadly summarize Offshore Compliance Options Available to U.S. Taxpayers
- Describe the Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP)
- Describe the Streamlined Filing Compliance Procedures and the key differences between Streamlined Domestic Offshore (SDO) and Streamlined Foreign Offshore (SFO)
- Briefly highlight delinquent FBAR filing procedures and delinquent international information return filing procedures

To view the entire presentation, click here.