

Thoughts on Tax and Estate Planning in the New Age

American Airlines Grey Eagles

April 14, 2010

On April 14, 2010, Norm Lofgren presented "Thoughts on Tax and Estate Planning in the New Age" to the American Airlines Grey Eagles.

Norm's practice focuses on taxation, estate planning and family wealth protection and transfer. His experience as a former trial attorney for the IRS coupled with his extensive experience in income, estate, gift, generation-skipping tax matters and tax planning for closely held businesses enables Norm to create solutions that minimize tax exposure and preserve wealth.

Speaker: Norm Lofgren

Title/Topic: Thoughts on Tax and Estate Planning in the New Age

Date: April 14, 2010

Place: Dallas, Texas

Group/Organization: The American Airlines Grey Eagles