
What Cancer Patients and Their Families Need to Have in Place Today for Tomorrow

Baylor Cvetko Center Multiple Myeloma Support Group

March 13, 2010

On March 13, 2010, Norm Lofgren presented to the Baylor Cvetko Center Multiple Myeloma Support Group on What Cancer Patients and Their Families Need to Have in Place Today for Tomorrow.

Norm's practice focuses on taxation, estate planning and family wealth protection and transfer. His experience as a former trial attorney for the IRS coupled with his extensive experience in income, estate, gift, generation-skipping tax matters and tax planning for closely held businesses enables Norm to create solutions that minimize tax exposure and preserve wealth.

Speaker: Norm Lofgren

Title/Topic: What Cancer Patients Need to Have in Place Today for Tomorrow

Date: March 13, 2010

Place: Dallas, Texas

Group/Organization: The Baylor Cvetko Center Multiple Myeloma Support Group