
Hot Topics in Maritime Litigation: Key Supreme Court and Circuit Court Cases, Emerging Trends and What to Expect in the Year Ahead

Forum on Admiralty and Maritime Claims and Litigation, American Conference Institute

February 27, 2013

Gray Reed's Julia Palmer is a speaker for the Second Annual Forum on Admiralty & Maritime Claims and Litigation hosted by the American Conference Institute. The Forum will begin on Wednesday, February 27th and conclude on Thursday, February 28th. The program covers developments and winning strategies to overcome the most current and complex issues surrounding admiralty and maritime litigation. To register, or for more information on the Forum, click here.

Julia Palmer's practice focuses on the representation of marine and energy interests, insurers, and insurance brokers. She has handled marine and energy litigation, including collision cases, hurricane losses, onshore and offshore oil and gas claims, hydraulic fracturing cases, marine and energy products liability litigation, the defense of personal injury and death actions, contract and lien claims, dock and stevedore liabilities and subrogation litigation for both domestic and international clients.